The background of the image shows a blurred scene of people at voting stations. An American flag is visible in the upper center. On the left, a person is partially visible behind a station that has a small American flag and the word 'VOTE' on it. On the right, another person is partially visible behind a similar station. The overall scene is dimly lit, with the primary focus being the text overlay in the center.

The background of the slide is a blue-tinted photograph of several people standing at voting stations. Each station consists of a white privacy screen on a metal tripod stand. An American flag is visible in the background, hanging from a pole. The people are seen from the waist down or their heads are visible above the screens. The overall scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the ambient room light, giving it a somber and official feel.
